

Dr. George F. Riegel, Jr.

Educational Background

- Saint Michael's Elementary School (Southfield, MI): 1963 – 1971
- Graduate of Brother Rice High School (Birmingham, MI): 1975
- Undergraduate Studies at Wayne State University (Detroit, MI): 1975 – 1978
- Graduate of American University of the Caribbean School of Medicine: 1982 M.D. Received
- Asbestos Environmental Studies at Georgia Institute of Technology, Asbestos Abatement for Supervisors & Contractors. (Meintz, Germany): 1987
- Enviroair Consultants, Certification of Detector Tubes, (Warren, MI): 1992
- Lead Environmental Studies at Georgia Institute of Technology, Lead Abatement for Supervisors & Contractors. (Atlanta, Georgia): 1993
- Environmental Studies at the Association of Energy Engineers, (Chicago, IL): 1994
- Asbestos Environmental Studies at T E O C, Asbestos Building Inspector. (St. Johns, MI): 2007
- Wayne State University Physician's Symposium on Mold, (Southfield, MI): 2002
- Various Annual Continuous Environmental Education Classes, various mold seminars including December 2, 2002 and April 10, 2003

Professional Background

- Practiced Occupational Medicine at various Industrial clinics in the Detroit Area: 1982 – 1985
- President and Owner of Medical Advisory and Consultants, Inc. 1985 – 1988
- President and Owner of Asbestos Removal Technologies, Inc. 1988 – Present – MI. License #2120
- President and Owner of Healthy Homes, Inc. 1994 – Present
- Business specializes in all aspects of Environmental remedies including Asbestos, Lead Paint, Radon, Mold Contamination, Underground Storage Tanks, Well and Septic systems, Water Quality, Indoor Air Quality Assessments, Consulting, Environmental research and Expert environmental witness.
- Founding member of MIAP (Michigan Indoor Air Professionals)
- Karmanos Cancer Institute: Wayne State University School of Medicine study of exposure estimation in homes with Vermiculite, Funded by The United States Environmental Protection Agency, 2007

Volunteer Activities

- Grosse Pointe Board of Realtors Affiliate Member
- American Lung Association
- Multiple Sclerosis Society
- Boy Scouts of America
- Capuchin Soup Kitchen